Robert (Bob) D'Amato has a unique perspective on our fair city. As a resident since 1972, he and his wife Sue, raised their son, Bobby and saw him through our school system. As a city employee for the last sixteen years he has seen the city grow and change. As the City Manager, for the last six years, he is an important element in shaping and guiding the Placentia of today and tomorrow.

On June 23, 1994, at Alta Vista Country Club, 7:14 A.M.,

PLACENTIA 2000

Bob will look ahead to Placentia 2000. What will it be like when we have no vacant land for development? What can we expect in the way of city services? What kind of shape will our infrastructure be in for the next century?

Bob will also tell us about what is happening now and what to expect in the coming year.

Mark your calendars now for this very special program.

Installation of Debit Card Printer System for Public Access Electronic

Information Services

All of the system components at the Reference Desk have been installed and are currently being tested. The Children's Department system is awaiting delivery and installation of equipment for a computer memory upgrade.

Several unanticipated problems were encountered during the installation. The most important and costly was the need to install dedicated power circuits to the Reference Desk outlets. I had assumed that this work was done prior to the installation of the computers at that location but it had not.

The systems in both departments should be operational for public use, and revenue-generation, by the end of June.

Submission to the Orange County Auditor of Claim for Reimbursement of Property Tax Shift for One Time Revenues as Authorized under AB 2371

The Orange County Auditor's Office is in the process of making some adjustments to the amount of property taxes shifted from special district to the Educational Augmentation Fund. Pursuant to AB 2371 the Auditor's Office requested from Placentia Library District in December, 1993, a statement of funds we believe to be exempt from the shift.

At the request of the Library Director, Charles A. Munson, CPA, of Anderson, Lynn Bezich, Munson & Cronick prepared a statement based upon the District's financial reports. Everything was submitted to the Orange County Auditor's Office by the deadline.

On February 10, 1994, the Orange County Auditor's Office requested that several changes be made and a letter with my signature be submitted. The letter was prepared and mailed on February 17, 1994.

While further changes may still be made the District stands to gain 10% of the funds reported. $176,737 or $17,674. Mr. McConnell, Chief, Accounting Operations, Orange County Auditor's Office, stated that they hoped to get these amounts finalized and the funds transferred by the end of the current fiscal year.

Public Officials Liability Insurance Coverage for 1994-1995

Count

At its meeting on April 18, 1994, the Library Board voted to change its carrier for public officials liability insurance.

At that time several questions were raised concerning the scope of the coverage during the transition from one carrier to the other.

The District's Agent of Record, Thomas F. Shipkey of Shipkey Insurance Agency, discussed several of the concerns with Secretary Stark on April 19, 1994, and submitted the letter identified as Attachment A and a follow-up explanation identified as Attachment B.

If the Board has any further questions about this policy Mr. Shipkey will attend a future Board Meeting to talk with the Trustees.

Re: Directors and Officers Liability

Dear Elizabeth:

This letter is to clarify the insuring clause of the policy as respects the "claims made" form. It covers any claim first made during the policy period for a wrongful act committed by the insured before or during the policy period.

Therefore, the new policy would cover a wrongful act committed before the effective date of the new policy. However, the insurer does not intend to cover a claim for which you had knowledge but had not yet been filed. That is why there is a question on the application which pertains to that situation.

My April 13,1994 letter stated in fourth paragraph that the new policy would not cover wrongful acts committed prior to the effective date. I had a discussion with Saundra Stark and she was correct about this point so I wanted to advise you of this distinction.

Please call if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Thomas F. Shipkey

Information Outreach Project.

BACKGROUND:

The National Library of Medicine is soliciting quotations from organizations and libraries to design and conduct projects that will improve access to HIV/AIDS-related information by patients, the affected community, and their care givers.

If awarded, the funds will allow the Library to establish and conduct a project that relates to an extremely important cause.

It will give the Library high visibility on the local and possibly regional levels as a specialized center for HIV/AIDS related information.

The grant funds will allow for hiring temporary personnel on various levels, to provide training and help with information dissemination and delivery. This guarantees that the existing staff will not be burdened with much added responsibilities.

FY1994-1995 Budget

BACKGROUND:

Legislative Activities

During the past month there has been no significant activity affecting Placentia Library District in the Legislature.

Attachment A contains several articles from the Los Angeles Times discussing the upcoming cash flow problem for the State. While this has the potential for impacting the District, our Representative at California Advocates continues to report that the prevalent attitude among legislators is that the independent special library districts have already taken more than their share of the cutbacks and that other agencies need to be addressed at this time. This issue is being watched very closely by both California Advocates and District staff.

Proposed Revenue Budget for Fund 707 for FY1994-1995

Attachment B contains the revenue estimates for FY1994-1995. These estimates reflect a growth of $34,623 or 3% over the budgeted estimate for FY 1993-1994. The City of Placentia Finance Department is estimating a property tax growth of 4% for FY 1994-1995.

In FY 1993-1994 the District Budget contained a provision for transferring $65,000 from a non-operating fund to the operating fund if adequate cash revenues had not been received. It is clear at this point that this transfer will not have to be made in FY 1993-1994. The Proposed FY 1994-1995 Revenue Budget for Fund 707 includes $76,743 as a transfer from a non-operating fund. Again, as was done in FY 1993-1994, it is the clearly stated intention of staff to replace this amount during the year with other cash revenues, or with savings in the expenditures budget. Attachment C outlines the activity in the non-operating funds for the past three years.

Proposed Expenditures Budget for Fund 707 for FY1994-1995

Attachment D contains the Proposed Expenditures Budget for Fund 707 for FY1994-1995.

The Salaries and Employee Benefits section contains a salary adjustment of 1.8% for all staff positions except page shelvers. This is the percentage change required for staff represented by the Memorandum of Understanding as the percentage change in the Consumer Price Index for the year ending March, 1994, for the Los Angeles-Anaheim-Riverside areas. This section also includes salary scale step increases for the five staff members scheduled to be eligible for them during the year. There is also an addition of .50 FTE (20 hours per week) Page Shelvers and .35 FTE (14 hours per week) of Library Clerk II. Attachment E contains the salary budget. Attachment F contains the Organization Chart for FY 1994-1995 and the Personnel Allocation by Activity for FY 1994-1995.

In Maintenance of Building and Grounds the HVAC budget has been reduced to reflect only the monthly maintenance and routine additional charges. Major equipment malfunctions will need to be addressed as they arise and possibly funded from a non-operating account.

Memberships are reduced to reflect the elimination in FY 1994-1995 of the institutional membership in the American Library Association since it will no longer be required for the public officials liability insurance coverage.

Printing costs have been reduced because the City is current with its billings for production of the Placentia Quarterly.

Election expenses are included at a rate of $13,000 but will not be needed if the vacancies have only one candidate apiece.

Tax Collection Services & Fees by Orange County have been reduced because the County has begun to take a large part of the fee out of the revenue before it is allocated rather than sending an invoice.

Semi-Annual Bond Payment is again split with one payment coming out of the operating budget and the other from the bond redemption fund.

The book budget contains the largest change. $150,000 is budgeted for operating fund purchases of books, audio-visual, and periodical materials. Attachment G contains a general breakdown of the distribution of the library materials budget.

Transportation/Travel contains $5,000 for staff travel and expenses, and $2,500 for trustee travel and expenses. This will allow some funds for attendance at State and/or National events.

Equipment contains $6,500 to replace the microfilm/fiche reader/printer and the balance for equipment and furniture in support of the electronic publications being purchased through the library materials budget. The microfilm/fiche reader printer that is currently being used will no longer make copies and repair parts are not available. The old machine will be kept as a reader only. The new machine will be purchased immediately.

Resolution 94-5 establishing the salary schedules for FY 1994 1995 is Attachment H.

Resolution 94-6 for the FY1994-1995 budget will be distributed at the Meeting.

Wilson Budget Has $2.7-Billion Error

■ Finance: Controller says state may not be able to show it will have the money to redeem bonds the governor wants to sell.

By DANIEL M. WEINTRAUB TIMES STAFF WRITER

SACRAMENTO—A $2.7-billion accounting error made by Gov. Pete Wilson's staff threatens to undermine the governor's newly released proposed budget for the fiscal year that begins July 1.

Wilson aides conceded Tuesday that the error was made but insisted it will not force changes in his proposal

"We caught it and corrected it," said H.D. Palmer, a spokesman for the Department of Finance. "The bottom line is that this correction does not have an impact on the budget plan."

But state Controller Gray Davis—who must sign off on $5 billion in borrowing Wilson has proposed—disagrees. Davis said it appears that the state, under Wilson's proposal, will not be able to show that it will have sufficient money on hand to repay that debt on schedule in the spring of 1996.

"We are asking people to loan the state of California. $5 billion," Davis said in an interview. "They want to know how they are going to get their money back. I am not going to sell them a bill of goods."

The error has implications beyond the state budget battle. Wilson, a Republican, is running for reelection against Democrat K thieen Brown, who as state treasurer is well positioned to exploit any blemish on Wilson's fiscal record. Brown had no comment on the matter Tuesday.

The accounting error does not mean that the state's budget short-fall—which Wilson has estimated at $4 billion—is any larger. But it does cast great doubt on the state's ability to vay its bills under the plan Wilson has proposed.

The mistake occurred in the Administration's estimate of the state's cash flow—a chart that shows how much the government will take in from taxes and pay out in expenditures each month between now and the end of the 198's-96 fiscal year.

There actually were three errors, Palmer said. The biggest occurred when an unidentified analyst calculated expenses for the state Medi-Cal program, which provides health care to the poor. The analyst was supposed to enter $333 million as an estimate of the savings from cuts Wilson has proposed. But he entered the number as $3.33 billion instead.

Two other smaller errors—one in the state's favor and one not—left the final number off by $2.7 billion.

So instead of the state having $3.2 billion in cash on hand as of June 30, 1996, as Wilson said this week, the new estimate shows there will be $449 million. Even that assumes the state will receive an unprecedented infusion of federal funds for immigration costs in the 1995-96 fiscal year—a hope Wilson has abandoned for the short term but still is counting on for a year from now.

If that money does not come through, the state would be deep in the hole.

The state borrows money by issuing interest-paying notes that are purchased by Wall Street investors. In order to market those bonds on Wall Street, the state must show that it will have enough money on hand to redeem the notes when they come due.

Wall Street analysts already have said they do not consider the hoped-for federal funds to be sufficient because there is no guarantee that Congress will approve the money.

Anticipating such a challenge, Wilson's finance director, Russell Gould, said the state would have $3 billion in various internal funds from which it could borrow. If the federal money came up short, he said, the state, in effect, would borrow from itself to pay back the investors.

Now that cushion is gone. Palmer said that instead the state will tell Wall Street it will make additional budget cuts to free up cash to replace the federal money if need be. But Davis, the state's chief fiscal officer, said that is not good enough.

"It's like when you go to borrow some money to buy a house and the bank says it wants you to put up a $10,000 down payment," Davis said. "You can't say here's $3,000, I'll give you the rest later, now give me the loan. It doesn't work that way."

3y DANIEL M. WEINTRAUB INGS STAFF WRITER

SACRAMENTO—Raising the specter of issuing OUs once again, state Controller Gray Davis said Vednesday that Gov. Pete Wilson's proposed budget does not fly" because the state cannot show that it vill have sufficient cash to repay the loans on which Nilson's plan depends.

A $2.7-billion accounting error led the Republican overnor to overestimate the state's cash reserves, nd now Wilson has nothing to back up his two-year orrowing plan but a fragile hope for a huge infusion of federal funds the year after next, Davis said.

"We have cried wolf before," said Davis, the state's chief fiscal officer. "Believe me, this time the wolf is at and keep prisons and parks running. But without major changes in Wilson's plan, Davis said, he will not grant that approval.

"The governor's budget plan does not fly," Davis said. "It is a cut-and-paste job that does not sell on Wall Street."

other in its cash flow.

It is possible for the state to run up a deficit in its general fund without going broke, and the state has been doing so for several years now. When this happens, the government can pay its bills by borrowing from various independent, internal funds.

This practice is analogous to a family that spends more than it takes in but manages to stay afloat by much deficit spending, however, the college fund runs dry, and the family is broke. That is where the state is

Davis said he will begin issuing IOUs, officially known as registered warrants, in early July if a credible spending plan is not in place by then. The fiscal year ends June 30.

The scrip would go to private companies owed money by the state, Medi-Cal doctors who care for the cannot pay its employees with IOUs, so Davis said he will husband what little cash is in the government's poor, and others. The courts have ruled that the state state's creditors that he will pay them back with money he is hoping to squeeze out of a rich but frugal uncle-the federal government.

Wilson has conceded that the federal money, which he wants as reimbursement for the cost of serving illegal immigrants, will not arrive this year, but he is still counting on it for the fiscal year that begins July 1, 1995. Davis said it is not prudent for the state to rely on more than $600 million of the $2.8 billion that Wilson is hoping to wrest from Washington.

Under the scenario put forward by Davis, the state would run out of cash well before April, 1996, when the borrowing Wilson is proposing comes due.

Davis suggested that the governor and lawmakers adopt a series of triggers that would automatically enact tax increases or spending reductions if the federal funds Wilson is hoping for do not materi-

"This is gut-check time," Davis said. "We need a clear expression of gubernatorial and legislative

The budget situation in this election year is intertwined with campaign politics perhaps more than ever before.

Wilson is running for reelection against Treasurer Kathleen Brown and has no desire to see a repeat of the 1992 debacle in which the state went 64 days into the fiscal year without a budget while paying its bills with IOUs. It also sent his public approval rating plummeting.

He was at war with the Democrats in the Legislature that year, but many lawmakers and Wilson have since concluded that a late budget only gets the public mad at all incumbents, no matter who is at fault.

As a result, Democrats appear ready to work with Wilson to enact a budget quickly, perhaps as soon as next week, if he is willing to compromise on the harshest of the health and welfare cuts.

"I don't sense there is anyone of any political stripe who wants to go through a drawn-out and nasty budget fight," said H.D. Palmer, the state Finance Department's spokesman. "People want to take the steps to get this done and done right.'

But Brown and Davis, the L. cratic nominees for governor a lieutenant governor, do not s their fortunes suffering from a k budget and therefore have be more willing to call attention to questionable assumptions in 1 governor's plan.

Brown on Wednesday ma Wilson's latest woes the subject a campaign event outside her Ca tol office.

The governor's performance,: said, was "inept, ineffective a incompetent." But Brown offer no proposals to help pull the st out of its mess.

SUBJECT:

District Holiday and Library Closure Schedule for Calendar Years 1995

BACKGROUND:

The District's Holiday and Library Closure Schedule is based upon the 11 holidays specified in the Memorandum of Understanding with the Orange County Employees' Association plus the addition of the Martin Luther King Holiday.

The Martin Luther King, Jr. holiday is recommended for addition at this time because it is widely recognized by government offices in Orange County and is a way of acknowledging respect and concern for the various minority populations in this area and the nation.

Presently staff receive 11 paid holidays plus a floating holiday for their birthday. The new schedule recommends 12 paid holidays plus a floating holiday for the birthday.

In addition to the paid holidays it has been District practice to close the Library on the day before Monday holidays. This has been done because attendance and usage tends to be very low on holiday weekends and so that staff may have the extended period to spend with their family and friends.

Resolution 94-7 establishing the Placentia Library District Holiday Schedule for 1995 and 1996 is Attachment B.

RECOMMENDATION:

- 1. Read Resolution 94-7 by Title only.
- 2. Adopt Resolution 94-7.

SUBJECT:

Acceptance of Library Services and Construction Act Title II Grant from the State Library of California in the amount of $42,959 as a 30% match for Disabled Access Remodeling Project.

BACKGROUND:

In December, 1992, the Library Board authorized the submission of a Library Services and Construction Act (LSCA) Title II Grant Application to the State Library of California to assist with the cost of remodeling the Library to improve access for the disabled.

On August 13, 1993, the State Librarian notified Placentia Library District that its Application has been approved in the amount of $42,959(\checkmark)

At its meeting on September 20, 1993, the Library Board of Trustees voted to not consider accepting the grant at that time because of the uncertain budget situation.

At this time the Board must make it's final determination about accepting this Grant. It is highly unlikely that there will be either Federal or State funds for projects like this in the future. The District is required by the Americans With Disabilities Act to make the facility fully accessible by January, 1995.

At this time there is $103,467 in the major building and equipment repair fund.

Smaller parts of this project, such as the bathroom remodeling, can be done locally without accepting the grant.

If the grant is to be accepted the Board needs to pass a motion at this meeting

RECOMMENDATION:

Reaffirm the decline of acceptance of the grant.

Election Guidelines

BACKGROUND:

The County of Orange Registration and Elections Division has issued its Candidate's Handbook for School Districts and Special Districts, General Election, November 8, 1994. Personal copies may be requested by calling 714-567-7600.

The "General Election Calendar" and "Special Qualifications for Holding Office and Voting Within Special Districts" for Independent Special Library Districts are included in Attachment A.

The positions in Placentia Library District that are up for election are two full terms for positions currently held by Evans and Stark, and an unexpired term for the position currently held by West.

Prior to July 6, 1994, the District is required to file with the Registration and Elections Division a "Transmittal of Election Information" form which identifies the number of positions up for election, the names of the incumbents, and whether the District will pay for Candidate's Statements of Oualifications.

Information about the content and cost of the Candidate's Statements is Attachment B. The cost of each 200 word statement is $700 and the cost of each 400 statement is $1,400. The District may elect to pay for the Candidate's Statements if it desires. The Board needs to determine the authorized length of Candidate's Statements (200 or 400 words), and whether the Board will or will not pay for the Candidate's Statements.

The proposed completed "Transmittal of Election Information" form is Attachment C.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

- 1. That the District authorizes the use of Candidate's Statements to contain no more than 200 words, and that the District will not pay any Candidate's Statements of Qualification.
- 2. That the "Transmittal of Election Information" form be certified by the Secretary of the Library Board of Trustees and submitted to the County of Orange Registration and Elections Division.

All section references are to the Elections Code unless stated otherwise. GC references the California Government Code, Ed. Cd. references the California Education Code.

CANDIDATE'S STATEMENT (OF QUALIFICATIONS)

Each candidate for nonpartisan elective office in any local agency, including any city, county, city and county or district, may prepare a candidate's statement on an appropriate form provided by the Registrar of Voters. The statement may include the name, age and occupation of the candidate and a brief description of no more than 200 words, of the candidate's education and qualifications expressed by the candidate himself/herself. However, the governing body of the local agency may authorize an increase in the limitations on words for the statement from 200 to 400 words. The statement shall not include the party affiliation of the candidate, nor membership or activity in partisan political organizations. The statement shall be filed in the office of the Registrar of Voters when his/her nomination papers are returned for filing, if it is for a primary election, or for an election for offices for which there is no primary. The statement shall be filed in the office of the Registrar of Voters no later than the 88th day before the election, if it is for an election for which nomination papers are not required to be filed. The statement may be withdrawn, but not changed, during the period for filing nomination papers and until 5:00 p.m. of the next working day after the close of the nomination period.

NOTE: In the event that the nomination period is extended because an incumbent eligible to be elected did not file nomination papers, a candidate's statement may be withdrawn during the extended nomination period and until 5:00 p.m. of the next working day after the close of the extended nomination period.

The Registrar of Voters will send to each voter together with the sample ballot, a voter's pamphlet which contains the written statements of each candidate that is prepared pursuant to this section. The statement of each candidate will be printed in type of uniform size and darkness, and with uniform spacing.

Pursuant to Elections Code section 10012.7, all candidates' statements shall remain confidential until the expiration of the filing deadline.

The Registrar of Voters will estimate the total cost of printing and handling the candidates' statements filed pursuant to this section, and will require each candidate having a statement to pay in advance his/her estimated pro rata share as a condition of having his/her statement included in the voter's pamphlet. The Registrar of Voters will determine the cost for each candidate and will refund any excess amount paid within 30 days of the election. An invoice will be sent if any additional amount is required to be paid by the candidate.

In the event that a candidate pays for a statement by check and the check is returned by the bank due to insufficient funds, the candidate will have 24 hours to pay for the statement in cash, money order or certified check, or the statement will not be printed in the voter's pamphlet.

NOTE: Due to minority language provisions of the Federal Voting Rights Act, Orange County is now required to provide election materials in the Vietnamese and Spanish Languages in addition to English. The materials covered by this Act include Candidate Statements. Therefore, all estimated costs include translating and printing candidate statements into the Vietnamese and Spanish languages. These materials will be provided to voters who have requested Vietnamese or Spanish language election materials.

Some candidates may wish the minority language version of their statement printed in all sample ballots and provided to all voters of their district. This exceeds the federal requirement and does involve additional cost. An increased deposit will be required for Nothing in the foregoing shall be deemed to make any such statement or the authors thereof free or exempt from any civil or criminal action or penalty because of any false, slanderous or libelous statements offered for printing or contained in the voter's pamphlet.

Before the nomination period opens, the local agency for that election shall determine whether a charge shall be levied against that candidate for the candidate's statement sent to each voter. Such decision shall not be revoked or modified after the seventh day prior to the opening of the nominating period. A written statement of the regulations with respect to charges for handling, packaging, and mailing shall be provided to each candidate or his/her representative at the time he/she picks up the nomination papers.

Copies of all candidates' statements will be available for public inspection at the Registrar of Voters office 10 days prior to being submitted for printing, in conformance with Elections Code section 10013.5.

SUBJECT: May Activities in the Children's Department

Reading Rodeo Summer Reading Program 1994 - Jeannine, Cheryl, Esther and I have just about completed the process of getting the department decorated for the summer activities. This is a very long and time consuming process, but I have always felt that the look of the department greatly enhances the overall effect of the Summer Reading Program. Jeannine Walters has planned and worked on the bulletin board for several months.

School visits promoting our activities are now in process and the children are coming in to register for Summer Reading Program. Most children and parents do not sign up until school is out due to the hectic end of school year activities.

The program is being advertised through school visits, flyers, posters, press releases, cable television, newsletters to the teachers and the Placentia Quarterly. We are looking forward to a summer of special programs, reading program activities and story hours.

We were able to elicit many special prizes for the children during the summer from several local business. The Whole Enchilada restaurant donated 500 childrens meals and Jack in the Box was very generous. Other donors were Polly's Pies, El Torito, Little Professor Bookstore, Fosters Old Fashion Freeze, Chuck E. Cheese, Togos Eatery, Baskin Robbins Ice Cream, Del Taco, In & Out Burger, IHOP, McDonalds & Carl's Jr.

After School Specials - There were two After School Specials for children ages 7 - 12 during May and they were attended by 34 children who created a variety of art projects, played games, and listened to stories. The last session of the summer was a party with donuts and soft drinks provided by the Children's Librarian.

Preschool Story Hours - Two preschool story hours for children ages 3-6 were held in May and were attended by 49 children. The children enjoyed a variety of stories and activities.

Control of the Control of the Control

School Visits - There were 100 children who visited the Library with their classrooms for tours & book selection during the month of May & 20 Brownies came for stories and a tour. Two classroom visits were made to Brookhaven for career days.

Grandparents & Books - The Grandparents and Books program attracted many wonderful volunteers who did a fine job under the guidance of Jeannine Walters. However, attendance by the children has continued to drop off. We have continued this program longer than Orange Public or Fullerton (who both began the same year that we did). Their programs were discontinued last year because of lack of attendance by children. We have advertised in every way that we could, but the children who come to the Library after school seem to be pretty well on task with their homework and parents of young children are usually at home by then. Dale Goodman, one of the volunteers, would like to see us try the program as an evening rather that after school activity starting in the Fall. I think it would be worth a try.

This summer, as we did last summer, we will have the GAB volunteers reading to children on Thursday mornings. This worked very well last year. The Parks and Recreation Day Camp came on Thursday mornings and were good listeners. Also that is a popular time for visits from Tynes summer school classes.

Paperback Books - We have purchased, cataloged and processed $1,000.00 worth of new paperbacks for the summer. This money was donated by the Friends group. These new paperbacks are always an instant hit with the children as they come in to choose entertainment reading for the summer.

Kristin Ryan - Kristin has been finishing her Masters degree in Engineering during this past school year and has still had time to come into the Children's Department to volunteer every Monday. Each Monday she has worked diligently to enter the juvenile paperbacks into the system and she has completed at least 90% of all of them! This helps us in so many ways! Now we actually know what we own and can help children and parents locate the books they need. It also greatly reduces the wait in line at the circulation desk. This is a project that would not have been completed any time in the near future if it were not for the help of this great volunteer.

oon, your Orange County Library card could get you discounts at local shops, allow you to read 800 periodicals on your home computer and give you access to the world's premier collections.

But you might have to pay for your card.

These are among the ideas being checked out by the Orange County Library Task Force, 15 people appointed by the Board of Supervisors in March to come up with new ways for the library to make money.

The pressure for fiscal creativity is on, because if nothing is done, some of the county sys-tem's 27 branches almost certainly will have to shut by July 1995, according to a recently re- what's happening with great conleased grand jury report.

Libraries all over the state are struggling. Locally. budget losses already have caused dramatic cuts in hours, staffing, book and magazine purchases and equipment maintenance. Without an infusion of cash, the only choice might be to let some branches die in order to maintain basic services at the survivors.

"This is an extremely serious crisis," said county librarian John Adams, whose budget has shrunk from $27 million in 1992-93 to a projected $18 million for 1995-96. "People are watching cern."

But, he added, "It's a little early to surrender."

The task force must report to the Board of Supervisors by July. Here are some of the ideas under consideration, Adams said:

ORANGE COUNTY PERSPECTIVE

Libraries' Rising Woes

Dublic libraries are an important component of a free society. For those who cannot afford the cost of higher education, for example, they represent one of democracy's best outlets for becoming self-taught and improving one's lot in life.

But as this week's Orange County Grand Jury report confirmed, the county's library system is reeling, as others are, from budget cuts mandated by shifts in local property tax money to pay for California's public schools. The viability of the library system, according to the ominous words of the report, "is in the hands of the public."

The jury found that some of the county system's 27 branches are in danger of having to close next year because of the shortfalls. Library officials expect a budget next year that will be $9 million less than what was allocated two years ago. Last year, more than $6 million was cut from the library budget, necessitating substantial reductions in service hours and the elimination of 75 full-time positions.

All of this makes even more urgent the work of the 15member library task force recently created by the Board of Supervisors to recommend new sources of revenue for the system. It seems inevitable that there will be some increased fees for such things as overdue books, and a new charge for placing personal book orders for publications not available in some local branches. The challenge will be to find those new sources of revenue that somehow still ,,

Chamber marks 70th year in style

Happy birthday ... Not looking any older and you're as active as ever! Probably most of us have heard those words before ... but in this case this "lady" really is as spry as ever. It's probably because "her family" keeps "her" busy. Her who? Placentia's Chamber of Commerce. "Her family" ... all local business owners and of course all of us (in a way) by "Shopping Placentia."

Birthday party? Sure enough! Chamber members and friends celebrated the chamber's 70th birthday in grand style at a party hosted by Placentia Linda Hospital, Darlene and Harold Shafer along with Ellie Rankin greeted chamber well-wishers while Michael Kelly, a hospital administrator started the party off with welcoming remarks. Al Shkoler, chamber prez, led the procession for the cake-cutting ceremony. Among the party-goers were David Bardos, Carol Petterson, Mary and Lee Castner, Fred and Elizabeth Minter, (she's our library director and tells us that the fibrary is also celebrating its birthday ... ASSIGNMENT ALERTS IMPROVE STUDENT SERVICES

ASSIGNMENT ALERT ALL-STARS

Thanks go to the Assignment Alert All-Stars of this school year, Ms. Shelton of Esperanza High School and Mr. Bell of Valencia High School. Both of these instructors took the time to notify the Library in advance of their class assignments. As a result, enough books were put on temporary reserve so that students were able to complete their assignments without running into the common obstacle of all the books being checked out.

Each school year, area students visit the Placentia Library looking for information they need to complete school assignments. The Placentia Library invites teachers to help in making this a productive and positive experience for their students.

The ASSIGNMENT ALERT is designed to notify the Library staff of upcoming assignments. By using the ASSIGNMENT ALERT, teachers and librarians together can make sure that students will find what they need when they come to the Library.

Information on a particular subject may be limited and if the Library is not aware of an assignment, the first two or three students may check out all of the available materials. If the Library knows in advance, the staff will place the requested materials on RESERVE so that all of the students will have access to the information.

Teachers are invited to visit the Library to pre-select the materials they wish to be put on RESERVE for their classroom. If this is not convenient the Library reference staff will select the items based upon the information provided by the teacher.

Thank you for helping the Library provide quality services to the students in the community. Assignment alerts will be distrubuted next fall, if you need one now please call Suad Ammar at 528-1925. Thank you for your cooperation.

ASSIGNMENT ALERT

As you think ahead to next fall please include the Library in your plans. The assignment alerts are very important

Every day children come into the Placentia Library to find books to help them complete homework assignments.

Sometimes they are disappointed because other students have already checked out all of the available materials.

Often even large subject sections can be completely depleted in a very short time.

You can help ensure access to these materials for all your students by notifying the Library prior to your assignments so books can be selected and held on reserve for your class.

Call the Children's Department at 528-1925, or mail us your materials requests.

GRANDPARENTS AND

BOOKS

The Children's Department is very pleased to announce that the GRANDPARENTS AND BOOKS program will be offered this summer. It is a state-funded program where older adult volunteers from the community are trained to read and tell stories to children in the library. These volunteers become the "Library Grandparents" to the many children who use the library.

This intergenerational program promotes the love of reading. Please encourage your students to attend this wonderful opportunity to listen to stories this summer.

Stories will be read by volunteer "Grandparents" to children of all ages on Thursdays in June, July and August at 10:30, & 11:30 11:00 A.M., Placentia Round Table. Wednesday, May 4, 1994, Suad Ammar made a short presentation at the monthly meeting of the Placentia Round Table. Principal Librarian Ammar gave some background on the need for literacy instruction and how Placentia Library Literacy Services (PLLS) is addressing that need. The up-coming tutor training workshop was announced and anyone interested in participating was encouraged to register.

Workplace literacy. California State University Intern Linda Scott spoke to the members of the Placita Santa Fe Merchant Association at their May 10, 1994 meeting. The subject of Mrs. Scott's presentation was employee literacy and how PLLS could work with the merchants to help improve literacy skills among their employees. Mrs. Scott will contact the merchants on an individual basis to assess their needs. The merchants were also encouraged to contact the Literacy Office to discuss their questions or needs.

Southern California Library Literacy Network (SCLLN). May 22, 1994 - May 24, 1994, SCLLN conducted its yearly planning retreat/conference. Katie Matas attended as the representative for PLLS. Forty-two people attended the planning retreat representing 30 of the 41 member programs. Martha Lane, adult literacy consultant, was the facilitator. The main focus of the planning was what should SCLLN accomplish between now and May 1, 1995. Tasks were outlined and people signed up to work on those they felt they could help with. Work areas included internal and external communications, volunteer preparation, mentoring of new literacy coordinators, paid SCLLN staff, resources, political action, joint ventures, and funding/fundraising. New officers were elected and locations of 1994/95 meetings were selected.

OUR BUSINESS OF THE MONTH-Placentia Library Literacy Services

Since 1984, in partnership with the California Literacy Campaign, Placentia Library Literacy Services (PLLS) has sought to work within the community to address the critical need for basic adult reading training. PLLS provides free and confidential basic literacy instruction to adults in the Placentia/Yorba Linda area. Students are both native English speakers needing help with basic reading and writing skills and speakers of other languages seeking to master spoken English. All instruction is centered on their goals and needs of the individual student. Students work individually and in small groups with volunteer tutors who complete a 15 hour Literacy Volunteers of America certified training course or the Literacy Services one day training/refresher course.

Throughout the years, Literacy Services has consistently recognized our area's rich, cultural heritage and diversity by providing tutors for students who represent a variety of countries, cultures and levels of education. Services continue to develop and expand with outreach into the business community to create programs that are "worker-friendly."

PLLS is seeking both volunteers who are interested in a positive, rewarding experience as tutors, and motivated students who can benefit from a personalized program to meet their educational needs. Tutor training and/or student sessions can be located at a variety of sites including the workplace. Tutor training or student sessions can be scheduled before or after the work day)or even during lunch!) Student sessions can be one-to-one or in small groups. Workplace literacy programs can be anything that dedicated and creative minds want them to be. The possibilities - and the benefits--for individuals, businesses and the community are endless.

The Placentia Pride Council met on May 19, 1994.

Chairman Marv Reid reported that Placentia City Attorney Carol Tannenbaum has offered to be a consultant on the Council's incorporation as a non-profit organization.

Minor changes were made to the Council's Vision, Goals and Objectives as they were presented at the April meeting.

The application for the grant from the California Council for the Humanities was discussed. The Library, the Placentia Pride Council and the Placentia Historical Committee will apply jointly for this grant. The application however may be postponed till after the 75th Anniversary celebrations depending on the applications' deadlines.

It was suggested that the Pride Council be represented in the Placentia annual Heritage Days Parade.

Government Edition

Dear Government Board or Council Member,

Here's a pop quiz on board/ council teamwork. Pick the description below that best fits your board:

- A) Consensus is easily reached.
- B) Each item is discussed at length, sometimes resulting in loud disagreement.
- C) Several factions fight over every issue.

 If you chose B or C, your board isn't

Get your board team to work better

To prevent problems that can undermine the effectiveness of your board team, the Board Doctor offers these suggestions:

- 1) Identify each board member's personality traits. People with overbearing personalities may get in the way of effective teamwork. Consider the balance of personalities when newly elected members join the board and committees form.
- 2) Make every effort to respect your board peers. Displays of disrespect and rudeness in the board room can easily and permanently scar the board team.
- 3) Realize that your view won't always prevail. No matter how strongly you feel about an issue, if the majority opts for a different view, accept it and support it.

a team. In my experience, these two statements accurately describe how many boards act. For the best possible board team, you should strive for option A. Here's one good way to get there...

Board Member Peggy Schantz tells me that the board team is only as strong as its committees. "The path to an effective board team is for board members to study issues in committee and then make recommendations to the full board," she says. Schantz is right on the money. Committees let members work in small, less-structured groups that quickly bond and allow for speedy consensus on issues.

The committee structure fosters sound decision-making on the full board. When members work well together at the committee level, they're more likely to do the same at board meetings.

"Teamwork is essential," adds Schantz (Oldwick, NJ). "To develop it, put members on committees—then let them develop trust, confidence and respect in one another at that level. Once they work well together in committees, teamwork in the board room follows naturally!"

Advice for new board presidents: Manage those meetings!

Board President John Donohue says that many responsibilities go with the top board leadership position. But none is more important than knowing the mechanics of the board meeting.

Here are six board meeting tips he says presidents ought to keep in front of them at all times...

1) Prepare yourself for handling complex issues. "The board president must understand every difficult issue the board faces," says Donohue. "By working closely with the administrator and doing a lot of advance preparation, I'm able to keep a firm hand on topics that by nature are pretty sticky."

2) Create a comfortable board room setting. "The right environment sets the tone for effective meetings," adds Donohue. "So place a pad and sharp pencil at every chair, along with fresh copies of the agenda and minutes of the previous meeting. When members arrive and take their seats, they'll be ready to go. You might even want to arrange with your administrator to provide refreshments."

- 3) Don't drop any surprises on board members. "Handing a report to members at a meeting and asking them to read it and make an on-the-spot decision, is a no-no," he says. "Board members need time to digest information before they can form opinions. Hasty, ill-informed decisions never help any organization."
- 4) Involve as many members as possible. "Board members want to feel needed. That's why I invite as many as possible to give brief reports at meetings. This keeps them from just sitting there—watching the clock."

- bers on the agenda. "A big problem arises at board meetings when the socializing aspect of discussion gets out of hand. While important, once the meeting is underway, comments not related to the agenda should be minimized. We're busy people, and we want to accomplish our business without wasting time."
- 6) Talk privately with board members who have a meeting problem. "If I think board members are unusually quiet—or garrulous—I take note of this," says Donohue (Orinda, CA). "These individuals may feel alienated from the rest of the board or think their opinions are being ignored.

"After the meeting, I visit with them to draw their problems or concerns out on the table. Talking about them usually gets the members back on track for the next meeting."

Follow these tips to making the right decision

When it comes to a tax increase or change in programs or services members of the public rely on, you better be 99.9% certain that the decision you're about to make is the right one!

City Council Member Brenda C Russell offers these two outstanding tips to help your government board or council peers make the right decision the first time...

♦ Base your decision on the facts. If you're contemplating a tax hike, don't base your vote on a hunch. "When the council faced raising taxes to pay for road improvements, members spent months reviewing the facts surrounding the issue," says Russell (Fairview, TN). "Our administrator even conducted a special study to determine the condition of roads, so we could map out those to receive top priority.

"The council approved the tax hike. Thanks to our research and the promise to citizens to use new tax revenues for road improvement, voters supported us."

► Take field trips to become an informed decision-maker. "Don't be afraid to admit you need help," Russell adds. "When our city had to install a new sewer system, the administrator and council toured the facilities of several similar-sized communities.

"These field trips allowed us to see what other towns were doing—and what worked and what didn't. The council's final decision was based on these findings. Without the trips, we wouldn't have been able to choose a workable system that would last for years to come."

Sincerely, Chuck Elliot The Board Doctor® (and board member!)
