

The Hangar

Where imagination and inspiration take flight!

The following rules are in effect for Placentia Library's The Hangar DIY Lab.

- Equipment and tools in the Hangar are available at no charge to community members with a valid library card, in good standing.
- All visitors to The Hangar must comply with the Library's rules and regulations, including the Code of Conduct, and the Public Internet Access Policy.
- Food and drinks are prohibited in the Hangar.

EQUIPMENT USAGE

- Patrons must "check in" at the Information Desk, using a valid library card and ID.
- Prior to using The Hangar DIY Lab, Patrons must (a) complete The Hangar DIY Lab Liability Waiver form; and (b) verify his/her identity with valid photo ID and library card. A Minor without valid photo ID may verify his/her identity with a library card and valid photo ID of a parent/guardian. Children under 18 must have the waiver completed by a parent or legal guardian.
- Patrons under age 14 and special needs patrons must be accompanied and supervised by a parent or guardian at all times.
- Patron sessions are limited to a 2-hour time period.
- This is a self-service model – manufacturing guides will be available for reference.
- Patrons must wear appropriate clothing and shoes to ensure safe usage of equipment. Long hair should be pulled back, dangling jewelry and accessories should be removed. Do not wear loose clothing or long sleeves that can be caught in the machines. Wear closed toe shoes, no heels or sandals. When necessary, wear appropriate protection for your ears, eyes and other body parts.
- By signing the Hangar waiver, the patron is certifying that he/she is capable of using that tool or equipment in a safe and proper manner.
- The patron must report any accident or incident that occurs in The Hangar to a Library staff member.
- Equipment in The Hangar may be used only for lawful purposes. The patrons will not be permitted to use equipment in The Hangar to create material that is:
 - Prohibited by local, state or federal law.
 - Unsafe, harmful, dangerous or poses an immediate threat to the wellbeing of others.
 - Obscene or otherwise inappropriate for the library environment.
 - In violation of another's intellectual property rights.
- Patrons (or if minors, their parents/guardians) are responsible for any fees incurred for loss or damage to The Hangar property, not associated with normal wear and tear, or for clean-up of the tools, equipment or the space.
- The Hangar is not responsible for any damage to, or loss, or theft of, patrons' personal property. This includes electronic files left on The Hangar computers and flaws or failures to materials when using The Hanger equipment and tools. The Library recommends bringing extra materials for practice as not all attempted projects are successful the first time.

- During The Hangar hours, computers are for creating and making purposes. Patrons who need internet and basic printing access may use the computers in the main library area.
- Patrons can only operate equipment that requires specific software using The Hangar provided computer/equipment. Patrons are not permitted to connect personal computers to use with The Hangar equipment.
- The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U.S. Code) governs the making of copies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. The person using The Hangar equipment is liable for any infringement.
- The library staff has the right to terminate any activities or projects that they deem inappropriate, unsafe, and/or restricts access to others.
- The Hangar is intended for hobbyist and prototyping purposes. Mass production of goods cannot be supported in The Hangar.
- The Hangar does not provide project storage, all projects complete or incomplete must be taken by the Patron.
- Equipment users must supply their own materials.
- Please be respectful of the space and clean up after you are finished.
- Hangar occupancy is 15.
